

Code of Ethics

By virtue of having been admitted to the Wholesale & Specialty Insurance Association as a member, each member of the Association shall be deemed to have covenanted and agreed with the Association and each of the Association's other members:

Members of the Association agree:

- To regard the business of wholesale and specialty insurance as a unique opportunity to provide an essential service to the public.
- To maintain high professional standards of conduct, integrity and service.
- To exercise the utmost good faith in dealing with each other, their business partners and their clients.
- To compete fairly and honorably in the marketplace.
- To be governed by a spirit of cooperation and exchange of ideas with fellow members to support and advance the surplus lines market and the wholesale and specialty insurance distribution system.
- To comply with all applicable state and federal insurance laws and regulations, maintain necessary licenses and immediately notify Wholesale & Specialty Insurance Association of any suspension, revocation or termination of such licenses.
