

PRESENTER

PETER MONTANARO

Lloyd's | Head of Market Oversight and Delivery

Peter Montanaro has been working in the insurance market for 37 years. He joined Lloyd's in 2004 as Head of Reinsurance Asset with responsibility for assisting syndicates in the recovery of aged debt. In 2008, he was made Head of Delegated Authorities, responsible for the oversight and approval of Lloyd's worldwide network of coverholders. In 2017, Peter became Head of Syndicate Capability Oversight. This role involved liaising with all the different oversight teams within Lloyd's and determining a holistic view of syndicate capabilities and then, when appropriate, working with those syndicates to address any challenges. In October 2020, Peter became Head of Market Oversight and Delivery, including responsibility for the Agency, Operations and Policy and Third-Party Oversight teams.

In addition to this role, Peter is also the Chairman of the Capital and Planning Committee at Lloyd's which is responsible for the annual approval of all syndicate business plans and for the setting of each syndicate's capital requirements. Before joining Lloyd's, Peter was one of the founding directors of Lambourn Insurance Services, a business that provided back-office support to companies, syndicates and brokers; run-off management to a small number of businesses; credit control, commutation, debt collection and reinsurance consultancy.
